Don & Marilyn Kunz have operated their beautifully restored, award-winning country inn for ten years in a historic river town in southern Illinois. As in her first book, MORE TO LOVE, Kunz introduces each section or recipe with folksy commentary based on personal experiences as a small-town innkeeper. In HAPPY ENDINGS, Kunz offers over 200 sweet finishes from mousses & flans; regional specialties, sixty original, never-before-published desserts featured in the restaurant, to "serendipity" - the gift of finding agreeable things not sought for. Recipes range from simple to complex, with large print & easy to follow directions. While the recipes are exceptional, the real treasure lies in Kunz's uninhibited tales & travails. From learning how to choose a carpenter - "name painted on the truck, experience & references & insurance...amen," to a tear-invoking anecdote about an anniversary couple who "had gotten another year", Kunz's sweet blending of food & commentary will leave you laughing & wiping away the tears while you wait for the cake to bake.
